

Table of Contents

Introduction	1
Walk-the-walk and talk-the-talk of Managed Care contracting	5
What cannot be changed?	11
What can be changed/could be changed if the payor is willing?	11

Terms And Conditions Common To Provider Agreements

Accuracy of information	14
All products clauses (provisions) – all or nothing	16
Amendments	17
Regulatory changes	18
Rejecting a change without being subject to it	19
Acceptance without reply	20
Unilateral changes	20
A very tricky example of what would seem to be double-talk	28
Assignment	30
Can you take over another entity’s existing contracts and any better reimbursements?	31
Audits: limiting direct access to electronic records in order to protect your data and system .	32
Capacity requirements	34
Chart requests – formerly an inconvenience, now becoming a nightmare on steroids	35
Claims submission timelines	44
The “Notice Prejudice Rule”	45
Company (payor) representations	46
Compliance with company policies	47
Covered services	49
Data requirements	50
Dispute resolution/arbitration	50
Eligibility	51
Entire agreement – oral representations	54
Equipment (use of yours)	56
Governing law/compliance with laws	58
Hours of operation	59
Indemnification	60
New technologies/new services	63
Non-Discrimination	65
Notices	67
Overpayments (and underpayments)	73
Payment policies	75
Payment in full	78
Retroactivity	80

Subrogation	85
Term and termination	89
Termination with-cause and without-cause	91
Termination with or without-cause (“economic credentialing”)	94
Termination – continuation of care once an agreement ends	95
Termination – notifying Members	96
Timely payment (timing of payments)	97
Withholds and reserves	100
Surprises hidden in plain sight	102

Preparing For Negotiation And Renegotiation – Reviewing The Documents

Getting started with negotiations/renegotiations	103
Finding (obtaining) copies of all of your existing Provider Agreements and associated exhibits, attachments, appendices, and amendments	104
Prioritizing agreements based on patient volume and revenue	104
Obtaining draft copies of the latest version(s) payors are using	106
Reviewing draft copies of prioritized agreements and securing management team input ..	107

Looking At The Numbers – The Dollars And Cents (The Dollars and Sense?)

Negotiating or renegotiating reimbursements	109
Analyzing current or proposed physician reimbursements	109
Analyzing current or proposed facility reimbursements if paid by CPT	112
Analyzing current or proposed facility reimbursements if paid by groupers	112
Measuring expectations and success in an evolving marketplace	117
Differentiation – what makes your practice or facility special?	119
What to discuss first -- language or reimbursements?	120
What are reasonable reimbursement requests?	121
Thinking a bit outside the box part 1a – carve outs.....	122
Thinking a bit outside the box part 1b – a carve out “oops”	124
Thinking a bit outside the box part 2 – reimbursement accelerators	125
Thinking a bit outside the box part 3 – payment for multiple surgeries and implantables	126

Capitation For Ophthalmology

Some additional thoughts on capitation for ophthalmology	127
Key information necessary for any chance at successful capitation contracting	129
Included and excluded services – how much should (can) you take on?	130
First rule of thumb
Second rule of thumb
Suggested exclusions
Always should be excluded	132
Excluded based on group/network capability and financial logic	132
Negotiation “must-haves”	133
What to do with excluded services	133

A quick thought on buffering capitated risk	134
Some capitation traps: watch for these	134

ERISA

A few thoughts on ERISA	136
-------------------------------	-----

You Gotta' Be Kidding (Strange Tales)

#1 When a payor demonstrates incomprehensible inflexibility	139
#2 Same ownership? Yes, but so what	140
#3 Same company? Yes, but so what	140
#4 Why are you making us the bad guys when patients have financial hardships?	141
#5 Do you really think we're that naive? (Apparently, yes.)	142
#6 Doctor, we're offering faster payment if you'll accept even lower reimbursements. (Seriously? Apparently, yes.)	142
#7 Oh, how the times they are a changing.....	143
#8 You're terminated. And then you're not	145
#9 Step Therapy, a delayed/refused payment problem that likely may not be solved through negotiating the Provider Agreement	146

Check Lists

Provider Agreement Analysis and Negotiations	148
--	-----